Dear Graduates of the Class of 1986

The final day has arrived! Graduation Day! CONGRATULATIONS! You have achieved another milestone in your development and growth. For some it was more difficult than others, but you have been successful. If you learned anything it should have been where your strengths and weaknesses lie. That in itself is an achievement. Now lies the responsibility and the task to build on those strengths and avoid despairing on your weaknesses. Talents have been given to each of you for the benefit of the whole of society. Thus shows the Wisdom of our Creator for we are social beings and dependent on each other for the common good of all humankind.

While you enjoy this day in fellowship as classmates, there is also a certain sadness for you will perhaps not be seeing one another for some great period of time. For while some may be working or studying here in Japan others will be pursuing their studies in the United States. But the spirit of fraternity should not be lost. You are encouraged to keep in touch with St. Joseph's through the Alumni Association. This proud Association fosters and keeps alive the Spirit of S.J.I.S. which you have contributed in building during your years at St. Joseph.

As for me, your homeroom teacher, I wish you all every success in the pursuit of your life and spiritual goals. I thank you for your cooperation with me in making this a very pleasant Senior Year. I wish, too, as do the other members of the faculty and staff, to thank you for letting us share in the growth and development of your life, especially during the difficult young adult years.

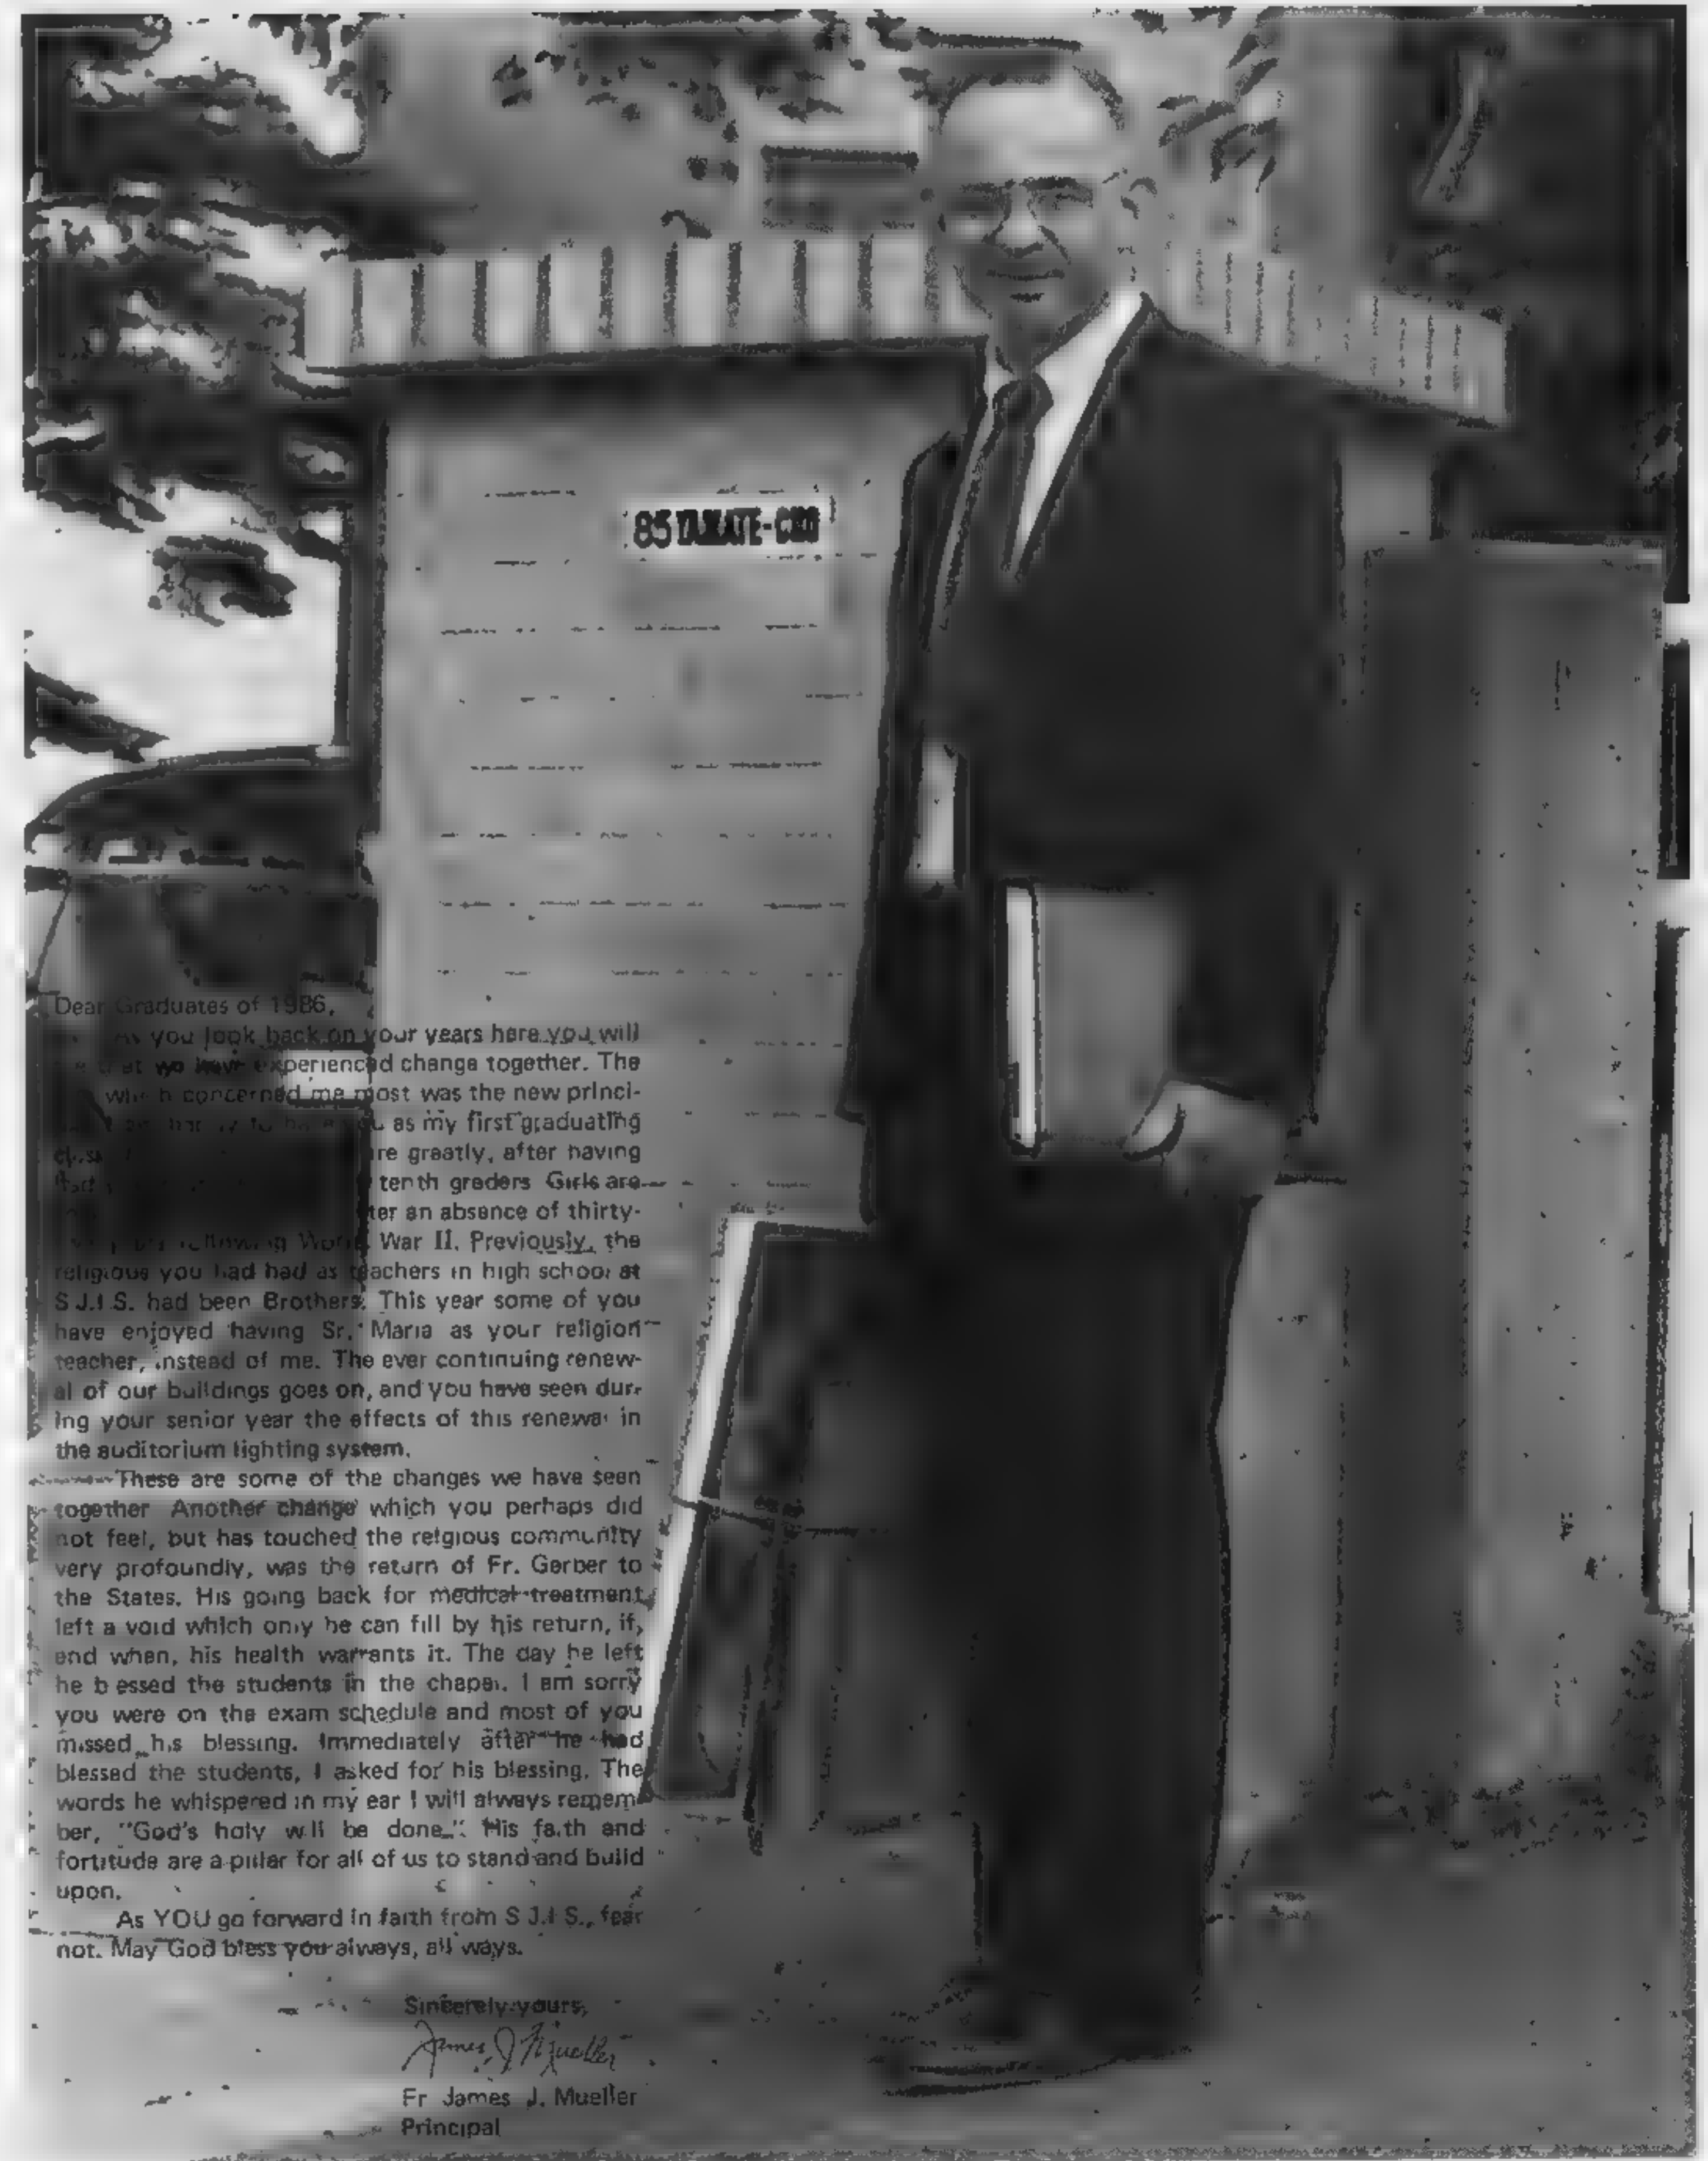

With best wishes and prayers, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ

Bro. Robert Kelly

Fr. James Mueller

Dear Graduates of 1986,

As you look back on your years here you will find that we have experienced change together. The which concerned me most was the new principal. I am proud to have you as my first graduating class. You are greatly, after having had a change in your tenth graders. Girls are now in the school after an absence of thirty years following World War II. Previously, the religious you had had as teachers in high school at S.J.I.S. had been Brothers. This year some of you have enjoyed having Sr. Maria as your religion teacher, instead of me. The ever continuing renewal of our buildings goes on, and you have seen during your senior year the effects of this renewal in the auditorium lighting system.

These are some of the changes we have seen together. Another change which you perhaps did not feel, but has touched the religious community very profoundly, was the return of Fr. Gerber to the States. His going back for medical treatment left a void which only he can fill by his return, if, and when, his health warrants it. The day he left he blessed the students in the chapel. I am sorry you were on the exam schedule and most of you missed his blessing. Immediately after he had blessed the students, I asked for his blessing. The words he whispered in my ear I will always remember, "God's holy will be done." His faith and fortitude are a pillar for all of us to stand and build upon.

As YOU go forward in faith from S.J.I.S., fear not. May God bless you always, all ways.

Sincerely yours,

James J. Mueller

CLASS OF 1986 THE CHRONOLOGY

This was how it all began, 27 individuals in the first grade homeroom to form one of the most notorious classes in the history of Saint Joseph. Robert, Kevin and Hiroyasu, though it was short, we did enjoy your existence and thank you for leaving us with all the shame. Special thanks to Bro. Charles, our beloved 1st grade homeroom teacher. We still remember the scene when you broke that stick on Larry.

It was a thrill, sneaking into the Santos Center that was being constructed then; and as a consequence for imitating "KAWAGUCHI - TANKENTAI", Mr. Barret, our 2nd grade homeroom teacher, ended up losing his voice yelling at us to copy the unforgettable "Look Listen and Learn" 50 times. Though we aren't absolutely positive, this probably was the primary reason why Peter, Gregory and Young Suk left us behind.

This year we all were frenzied by the "Blitz Krieg" of demerit slips issued by our 3rd grade homeroom teacher, Mrs. Zmolek. We probably owe special thanks to the administration for not expelling our friends such as Daichi, Masaru and Toshihiro who probably set the school record by each receiving over thirty demerit slips in a year. We are hundred percent sure that our new comers, Sunny, Koei and Hugh had hard times trying to cope with the great turmoil that swept the third graders of 1977.

Mrs. Whalen, why did you leave us? Did you ever think about the consequences? Mrs. Mc Craken was half-way paranoid by the end of the year. That infamous Sean O'Hara, Mr. Eckleburg. Oh, the school year 1977-1978 was a farce.

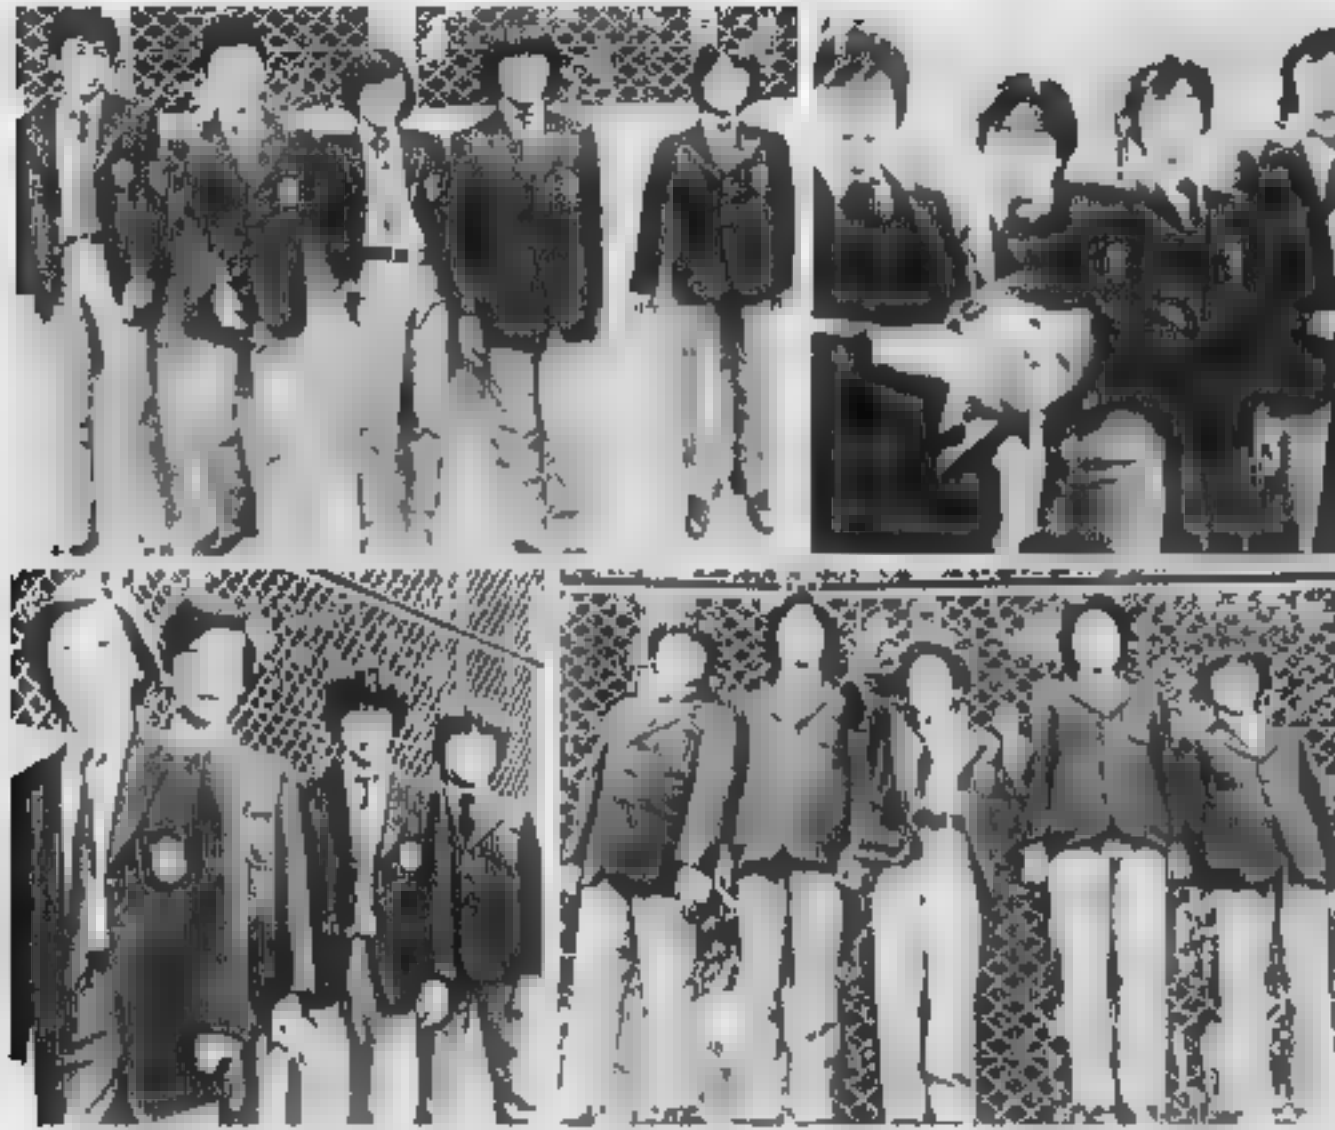

"My students here at St. Josephs have been some of the most eager and sensitive which I've ever had. They have met the challenge of learning in English extremely well. The future of Japan or whatever country they choose to live in when they grow up will be in excellent hands," quotes our esteemed 6th grade homeroom teacher Mr. Evan Corday.

Farewell Daichi, the unforgettable. You probably couldn't stand the psychological pressure caused by the fear of Mr. Mikami's golden right fist and Mr. Alf's threatening remarks. Anyway 6th grade was one of the most enjoyable years we ever had here at St. Joseph.

THE CHRONOLOGY

We were really lucky to have Mr. Chang as our homeroom teacher. Wilson was stupid enough to join our gang not knowing that he will be the victim of the class. This was the last year we ever had Mr. Okuhara for our Mathematics. We all miss you, Fuso Matsuoka, Toshihiro Cheng and our peculiar guest from Hong Kong, James Pau.

Unfortunate for them and fortunate for us, three new individuals joined our group to fight against the administration. They were Toshihiro (not Cheng though), Sano and Chris. This was the beginning, the beginning of Mr. Miller accompanying at every excursion we had through high school. It was the last time we ever saw Paul Yuki's name on the honor roll. Thanks to Mr. Miller no one was in real danger of failing before graduation.

This year we had two new individuals, Ken and John. It was also the start, the start of our complaining about the various decisions concerning excursion and its destination. This complaining, often changed our extended homerooms into battlefields. Concerning this year's excursion, one of our classmates fell off the roof and broke his leg. This was on Friday the 13th. By the way, the two new individuals left our class at the end of the school year.

Surprisingly, two new Americans joined us this year. They stimulated us and made us use more English than ever. Due to a number of problems, the school began to look down on us. Despite our ability to accept new comers, Jim Hogg could not adjust to our class and due to his pride in his home country he left the class. In other words, he seemed to possess a superiority complex which we could not tolerate.

Francois and Louis joined us this year. This was the toughest year we ever came across. No Prom, No Class Excursions. Due to some misunderstandings (which weren't our faults) we were given another bad name. Two unique individuals left our class. They were Toshikazu, our entertainer, and Koei.

So this is the class of '86, 18 tough, tolerant, and innocent men who are graduating. Some may say "Already" or some may say "Finally". But anyway, we are graduating, no matter what you say, Ha! Ha! Ha! During the years, we were able to experience a lot of things, some good and some bad, which we believe would be a positive asset of us all when we face trouble in the future. When we look back at the years in S.J.I.S., they seem to have passed quite quickly.

"Still a claim to our affection
S.J.I.S shall ever hold!"

This year the girls joined our class. They really enjoyed chatting a lot and therefore the class is in a mess. But there is one thing which the girls have changed in the boys, the boys started to show their own individuality. One shows his individuality by getting a straight 'A' in the class. Another one shows his individuality by becoming an outstanding soccer player, and another one shows his individuality by becoming the "clown" of the class. I think, one of these days the girls will become good leaders because of their tremendous attractiveness in all areas, an attitude the boys don't have.

The class of '89 is quite unique regarding their kindness and respect for each other. In September, our class was disunited but, as time elapsed, we became one, strong in our co-operation and self-discipline. I have noticed a great difference, even though most haven't noticed it, between how we act at present and how we acted at the beginning of the year. I think we are now entering the world of adults. All this change has taken place by the help of our homeroom teacher and we thank him a lot.

Drama Club

moderator
Mr. Arthur Stavrinaky

In this brief and rather caustic evaluation, it makes sense that I should refer solely to the regular members, not to the numerous volunteers who helped us to make "Billy Budd" a landmark in the history of the most important activity at SJIS.

Of the ten regular members, three are virtually "part-time performers", since they are too much involved in their sundry sports activities to participate in all the plays. They managed to perform extremely well in half of the productions. Talented people at SJIS have a tendency to spread themselves thin, but we are certainly fortunate to have them in our club as well.

Another "regular" has been "banned" by the moderator for his egregious "lack of commitment". He consequently did not take part in the major production of the school-year. This leaves only "Six Characters in Search of an Author".

Since I have absolutely no personal feelings one way or another about these six people, except that their sense of humour makes it very pleasant for me to work with them, I shall merely attempt to assess their contributions to the Drama Club in the 1985 - 1986 season.

They were at their best in the avant-garde adaptation of Graham Green's "Shocking Accident" last autumn. Their performance in Sagan's "A Dog's Night" was not up to the same level, since they seemed to lack any understanding of the basic message of the plot. (It seems advisable, in general, that they think more "deeply" about each play, especially if it is a comedy, since many comedies have more to them than meets the eye and demand more intellectual analysis than a "straight play".) The two outstanding ones were the Narrator, who not only narrated but also acted, and the Dog, who did neither.

They had an extremely difficult time projecting sense into the rather weak tear-jerker, whatever it was called, written by one of their classmates who imagines himself to be highly creative. In the major production, on the other hand, they rose to the occasion and managed to give a relatively intelligent interpretation of the rôles. Captain Vere's performance on Saturday, April 12, was beyond compare. "God bless Captain Vere!"

The 1985 Brain Bowl began at 6:30 A.M. when everyone (well, almost everyone) boarded the bus for Yokota. This year there were several changes in the game rules; first of all the questions were only read once — it used to be repeated for the other side, and also the matches were scheduled at two centers so that two matches could occur simultaneously. These two rule changes significantly speeded up the marathon event, but still it was after 8:00 P.M. when the bus pulled into our gate. Looking back on the event, a number of images flash through my mind. I recall the scene of great human tragedy followed by greater human kindness when a young boy dropped his ice cream cone on the floor of Baskin-Robins and began to cry — a kind salesgirl realized how tramatic this loss was and agreed to give him another one. Another poignant memory was of the trip back after twelve solid hours of Brain Bowling. Although the ride up had been calm and quiet, the return trip was totally different. One entire school's team, especially the moderator, was suddenly struck by an acute food poisoning which caused to rant, rave, and chant all the way back to Yokohama. We later heard that they had returned to normalcy.

CAPTAIN

The tennis club was marked by inconsistency this year. Almost everyone could play very well, but this good play was indisposed with periods of abysmally poor play. The reasons are many but perhaps the most important one being that the tennis club members only play during the tennis season. If we are ever to be able to compete on a par with A.S.I.J. or St. Mary's, then we must start in the grade school and play continually through the years.

CAPTAIN

I had been fighting for it. I spent five seasons as a goalie. Each season, with different players, I tried my best, but I failed, always. However, this year, at the very last chance I had, we beat St. Mary's. It was the greatest ecstasy I had ever experienced. I am proud of the team and I would like to both congratulate and thank every member on the team.

The 1985 - 86 Soccer Season

The season can be divided into two competitions, the league and the tournament. We entered the league schedule knowing our players lacked both height and weight. Despite this, things went well until the A.S.I.J. and Yokota away games. In the former we played badly, then it was impossible to beat the Yokota team and the referees! Dejection set in; as memories of past tied games, came back; they could so easily have been victories with a little luck or if we'd taken our chances. Luck was not on our side for the league, in fact at the end we had to play our last three games in four days!

While the 'A' team played league games, our 'B' team played against most of the other schools' 'B' teams. They played some really good soccer, scored some fine goals and remained UNBEATEN ALL SEASON.

The Tournament proved to be a completely different story, everything came good. Our smaller players used their hard running, aggression and skills, to really good effect, against their much larger opponents. The team spirit was excellent, and had to be right from the beginning. St. Joseph, without a doubt, had the most difficult path to the final. However, we did reach the final by beating Yokota 2-1, and St. Mary's 4-1. The game against St. Mary's was the best game a St. Joseph team has ever played since I've been at the school. A terrific, team triumph.

The final against Canadian Academy at the Kobe Universiade Stadium was a truly memorable occasion for all of us that were there, I'm sorry that the other team members couldn't have been there too. To win that final after full-time and then penalties was just indescribable and I thank ALL THE SOCCER TEAM MEMBERS for making the 1985 - 1986 season one to remember.

Captain: Paul Yuki

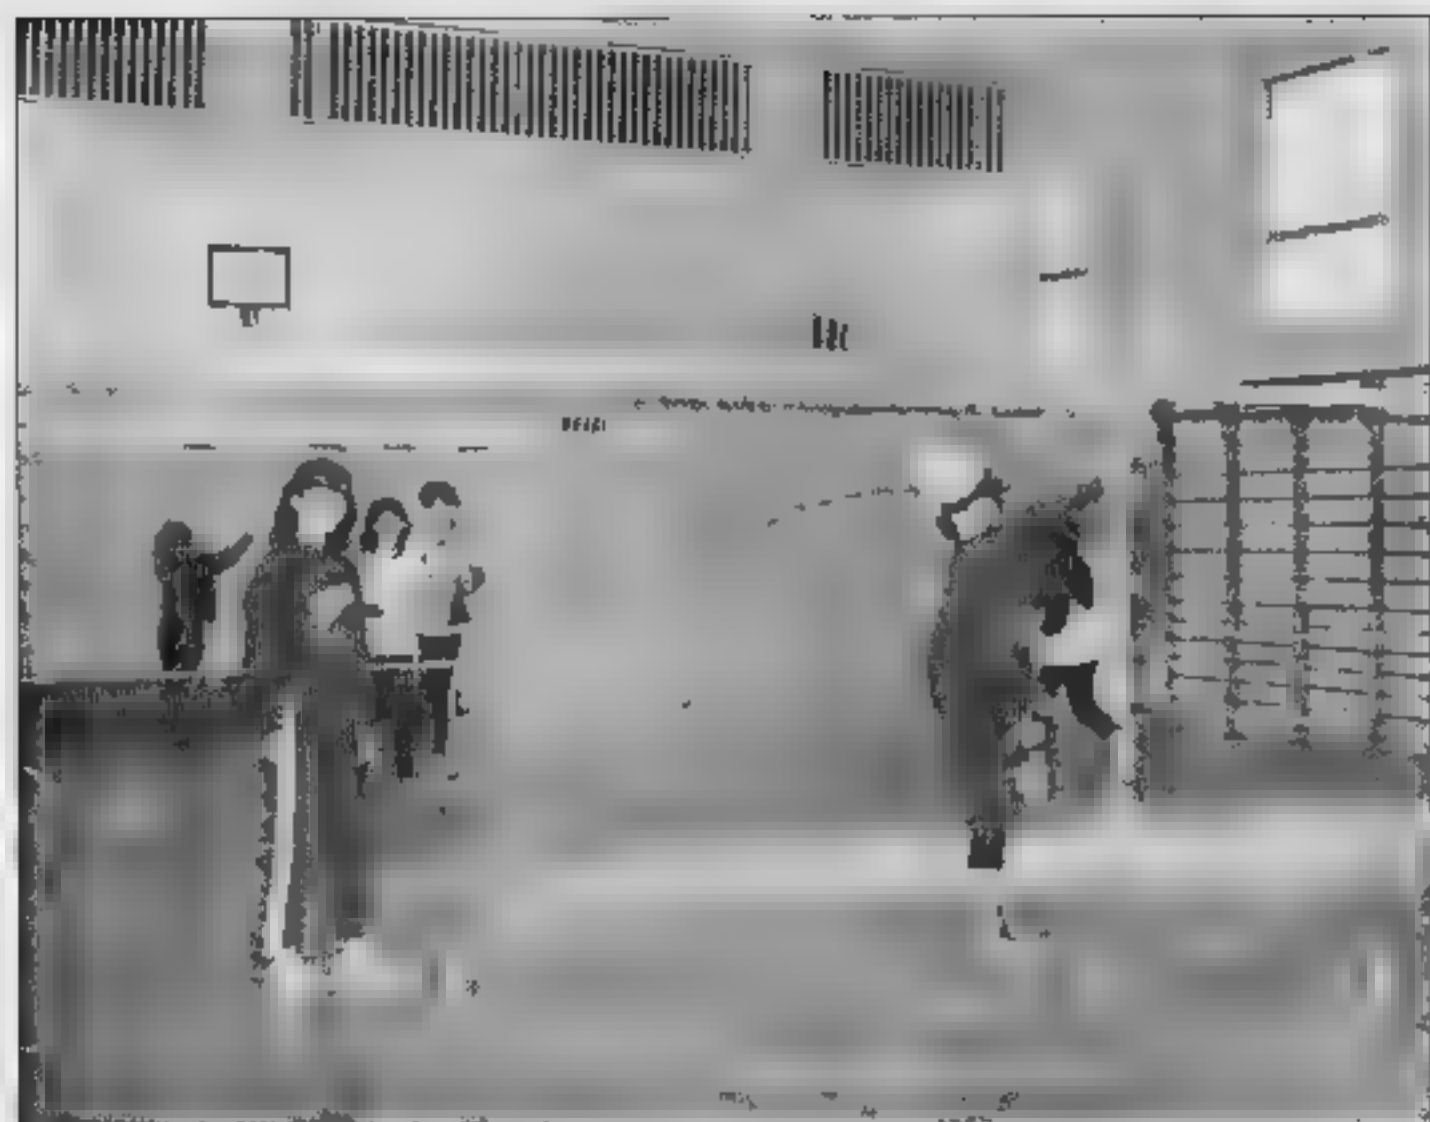

Inspite of all the difficulties I had as the captain of the team, partially because I did not recognize the importance of being the captain, the team as a matter of fact turned out at the end with a little bit more progress than last year; beating a team we've never won before such as Yo-hi. Hope my fellow members will continue to play baseball and keep on improving and improving. Wish you good luck next year.

I didn't think our team would be able to win any game but I was proven wrong at the first game against Zama. Some of the players improved very much, but some didn't. No one can improve his skills unless he does his best during practice. I hope all of the players will be better next year.

Events 1985~1986

SEPTEMBER

Saturday, 11
First Day of School

All the students exhausted from their long summer vacation came back again with great expectations. It was sort of a weird experience to see two seniors badly injured and a junior in crutches. Was this the bad omen of the school year 1985-1986?

Friday, 13
Opening Mass

The annual opening mass conducted by Fr. Mueller was held at the Sacred Heart Cathedral. The class representatives went up to the altar and asked for God's blessing for the coming school year.

Tennis Season Begins

This year the tennis team started practicing from the very first day of school. With Mr. Priest as the coach and Yuzo Kaneko as the captain, the tennis team strived for the coming league matches.

Cross Country Season Begins

Up the hill and down the slope, this year's cross country team lead by the captain Johnny, the iron will, started practicing from early September. Ten times around the Negishi Park, five times up the Washizaka hill. They really did put some effort in it.

OCTOBER

Friday, 4
Student Council Election

Our Student Council this year had a slow start. In spite of having the election in October, we were able to elect four able members as our Student Council Officers.

Saturday, 19
Animal Instinct

Our first dance "Animal Instinct" sponsored by the Social Committee went successfully, perhaps the most successful one we had this year. This was the first major Student Council activity of the year.

Intramurals Begins

This year we had three sports in our intramurals program. As usual it ended up with senior and junior dominations for the first places.

The results are as follows:

Softball	1st Seniors
	2nd Sophomores
	3rd Freshmen
Basketball	1st Juniors
	2nd Seniors
	3rd Sophomores
Soccer	1st Freshmen
	2nd Juniors
	4th Sophomores

Tuesday, 5
College Day

The Juniors and Seniors went to St. Mary's to attend the College Day together with the students from other international schools. What was that firebell that rang in the midst of the day?

Friday, 22
Brain Bowl

Our brain bowlers headed towards Yokota Air Force Base with little expectations. "We didn't have enough practices. Kitamura came late. Tajima was mad at the St. Maur girls. Anyway good luck next year," words from the captain.

Saturday, 23
NENJI TAIKAI

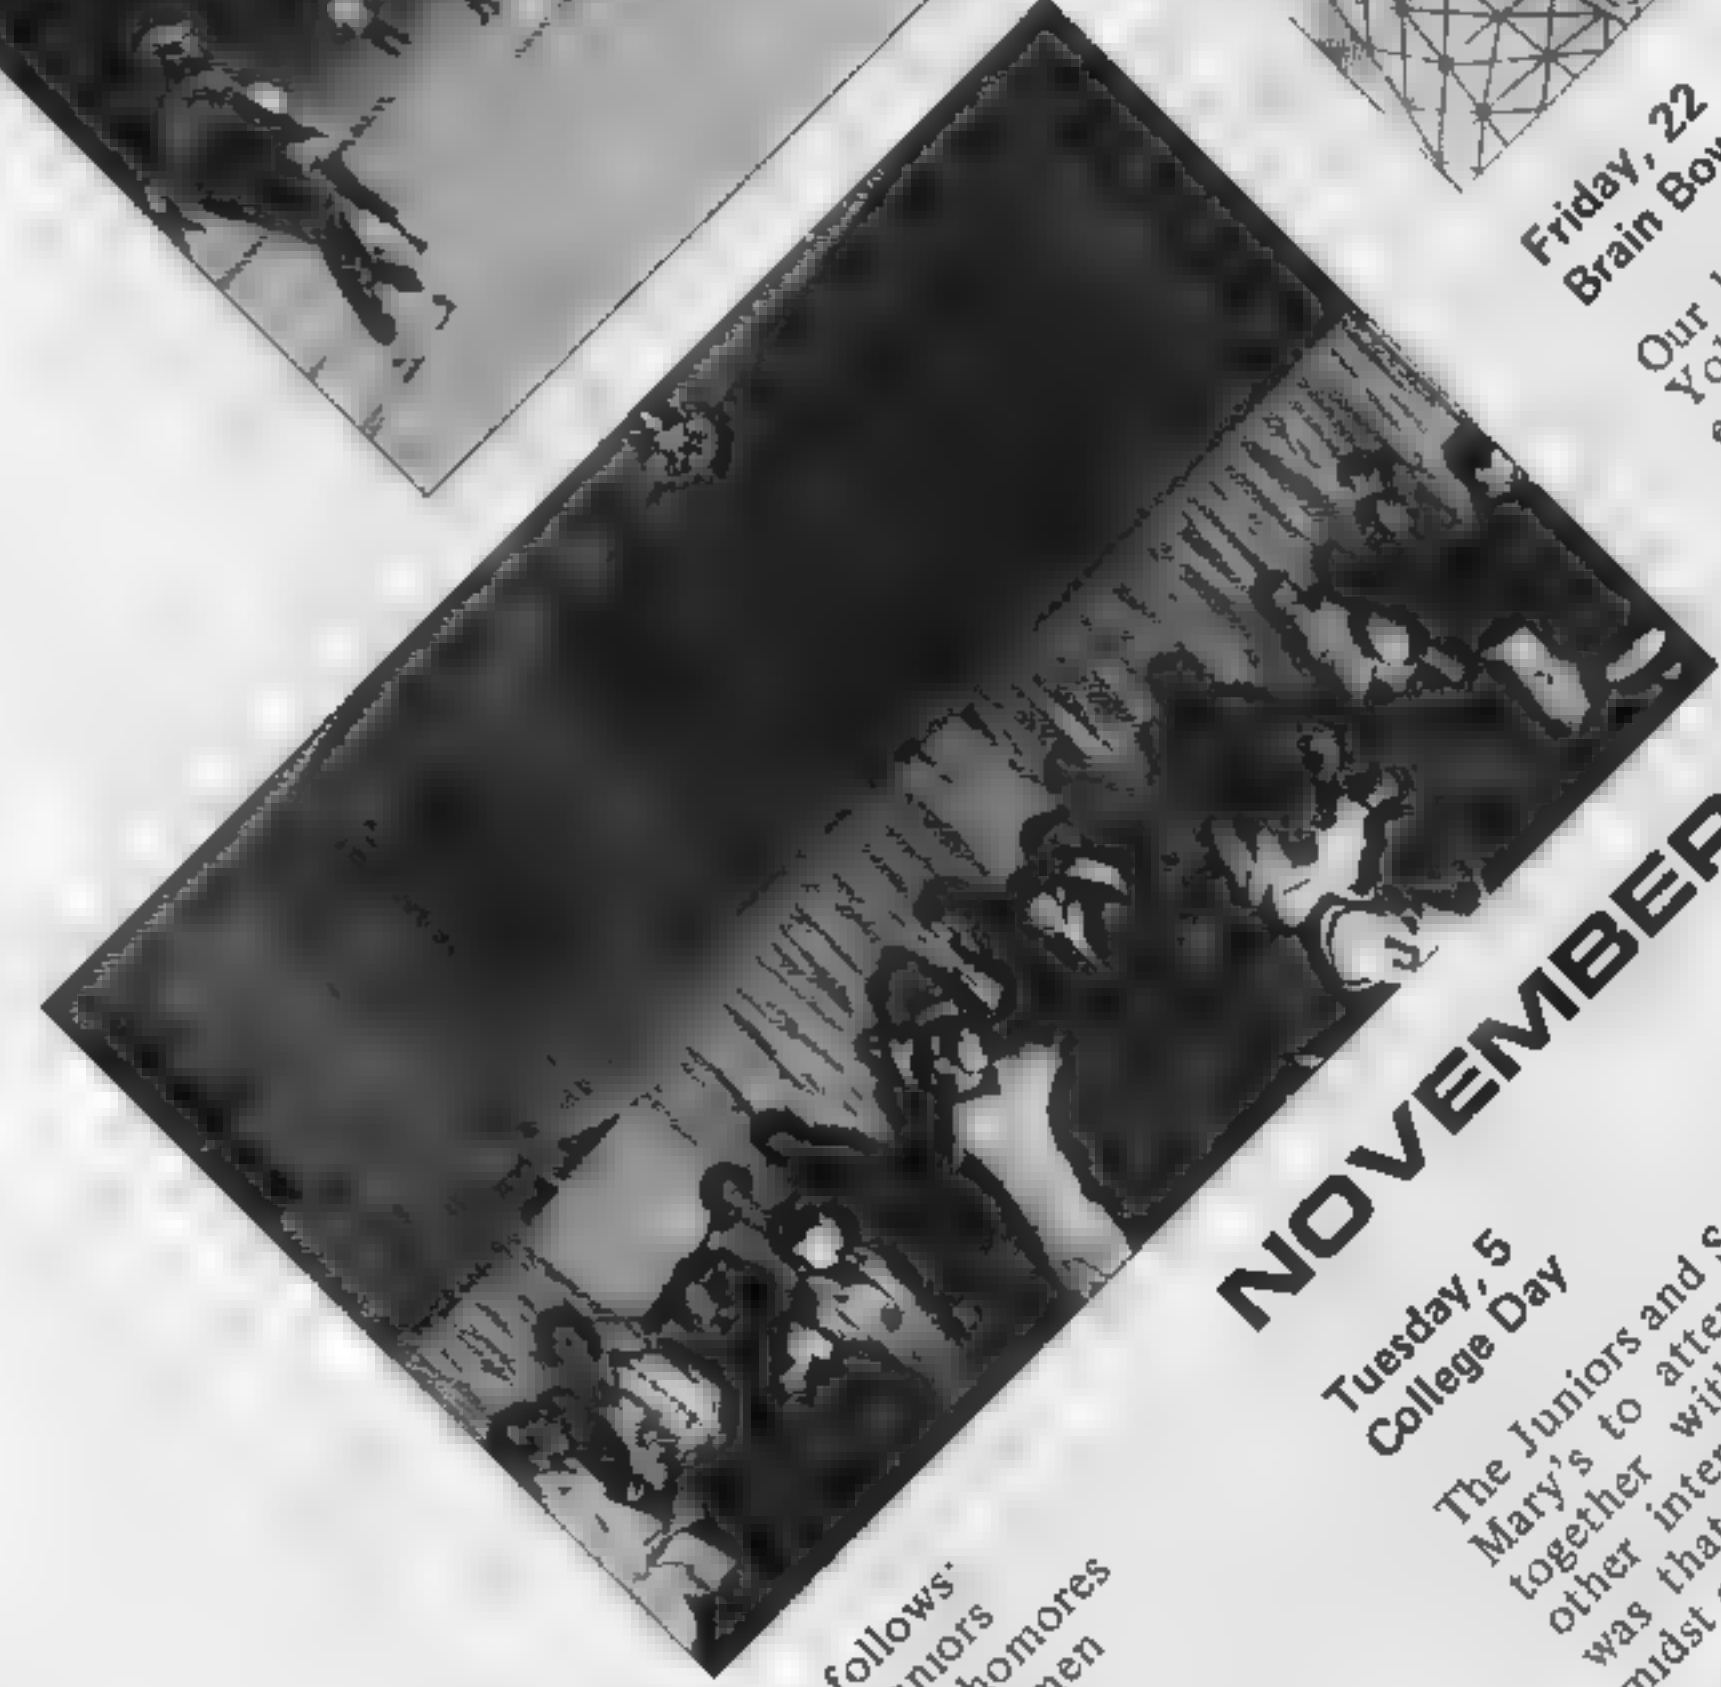

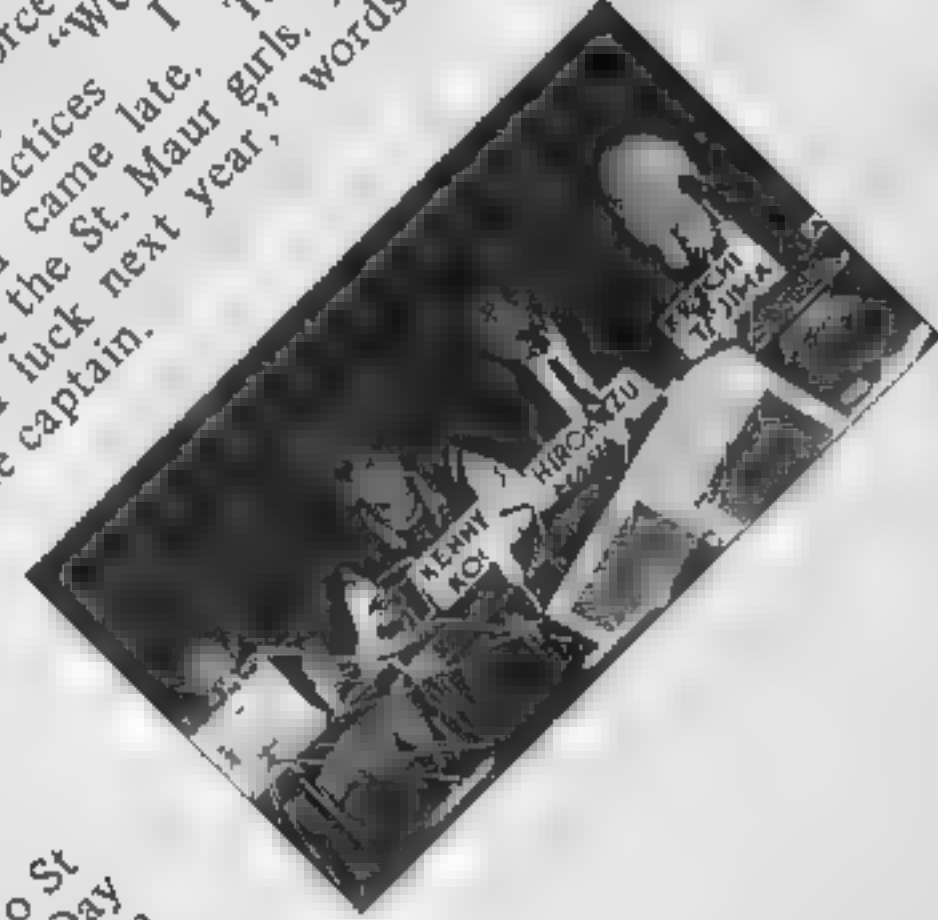

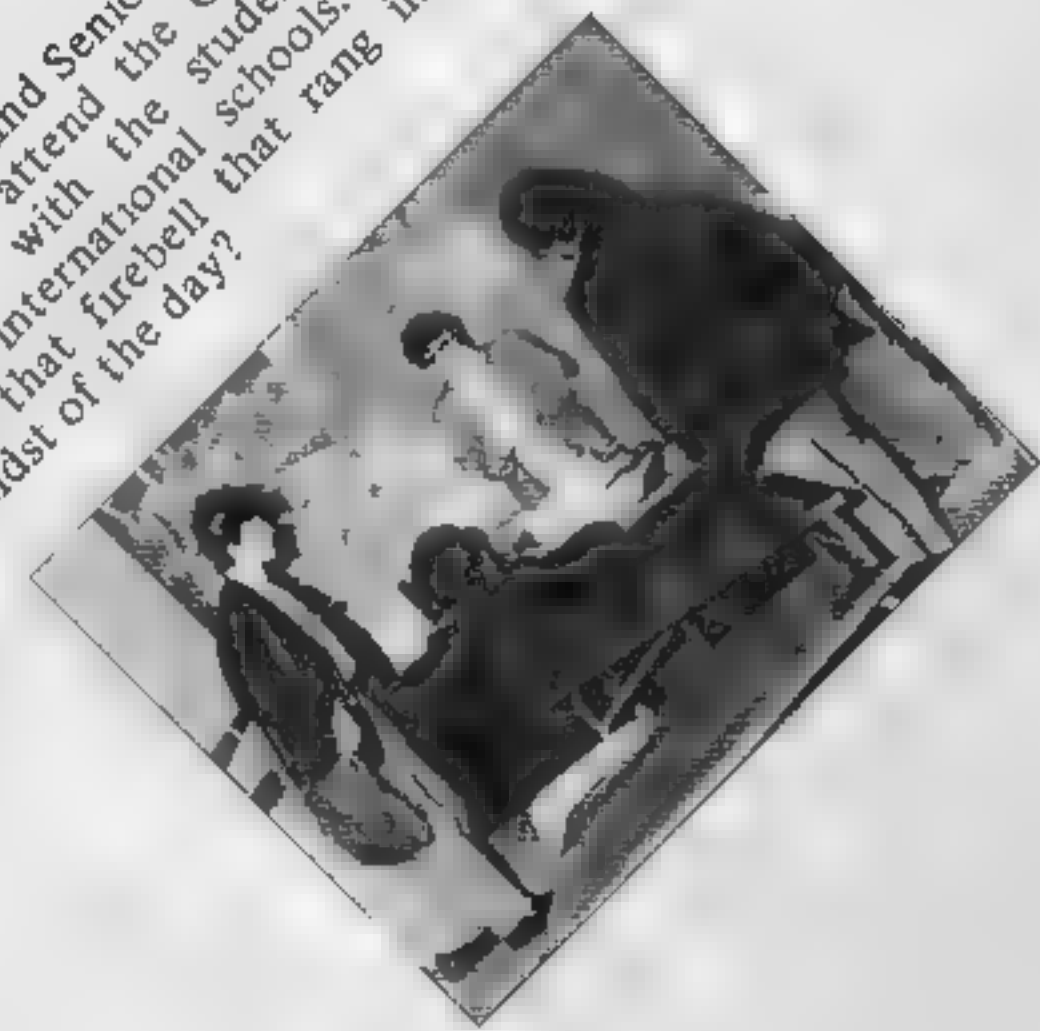

The interact members travelled to Matsuda High School to attend the annual NENJI TAIKAI. Here, we had an opportunity to express and exchange various ideas on different topics with other Japanese school students.

Friday, 15
JCOS

JCOS 1985 was held at 3 Yokohama schools, St. Maur, St. Joseph and YIS. Our National Honor Society members helped out in organizing this meeting.

NOVEMBER

Wednesday, 27 Bon Fire

With Y18 and St. Maur participating together with our students, this year's Bon Fire ended up successfully. Over four bands performed, everyone who showed up enjoyed the festivity. This was the first year that the Senior Scouts refused to help out clean the fire.

Wednesday, 27 Speech Contest

The annual school speech contest took place on the same date as the Bon Fire and the first day of the filming of the TV series, "SEIRA FUKU DORI". Despite the turmoil, everything went smoothly.

Thursday, 19 Christmas Assembly

The Drama Club performed two one act plays in the auditorium entertaining all the students who attended the assembly. After this assembly the students dispersed to forget about school and enjoy their vacations.

DECEMBER

Saturday, 7
Electric Dream of Shangri-la
The second dance, "Electric Dream of Shangri-la" was not as successful as the first dance and revealed the hardship on the chairman. This was the time when Louis Chen took over the arduous task of the Social Committee Chairman.

JANUARY

Friday, 31
Senior Scout Camp
Though only three members attended this camp, the senior scouts enjoyed these two nights at Tanzawa. This camp surprised the whole school for this proved that the lackadaisical Senior Scout actually can do something.

FEBRUARY

Wednesday, 12 - Sunday, 16
Ski Trip
Members of our school together with Mrs. Mori went to Shigakogen for the annual ski trip. The weird incident that took place on the way would forever remain in our memories.

MARCH

Friday, 7 - Sunday 9
Soccer Invitation Tournament
Our soccer team headed toward Kobe to play in the invitation tournament. With pride and self confidence that had been built up from the arduous practices and games, they won the tournament beating Canadian Academy and St. Mary's.

Saturday, 22 Hot Gossip

Our 3rd Dance, "Hot Gossip" primarily due to the drastic maze type layout of the dance hall ended up being a success. The hard work of the Social Committee is commendable.

Baseball Season Begins

With Paul Yuki as the captain and Mr. Kobo as the coach, the baseball team put all their efforts into the practices with the least expectations.

Thursday, 27 - Friday, 28 Doors to the Future '86

During these two days, students went around listening to various speakers form various fields and open the students' doors to the future.

APRIL

Saturday, 5 - Sunday, 6
Bingo Food Festival

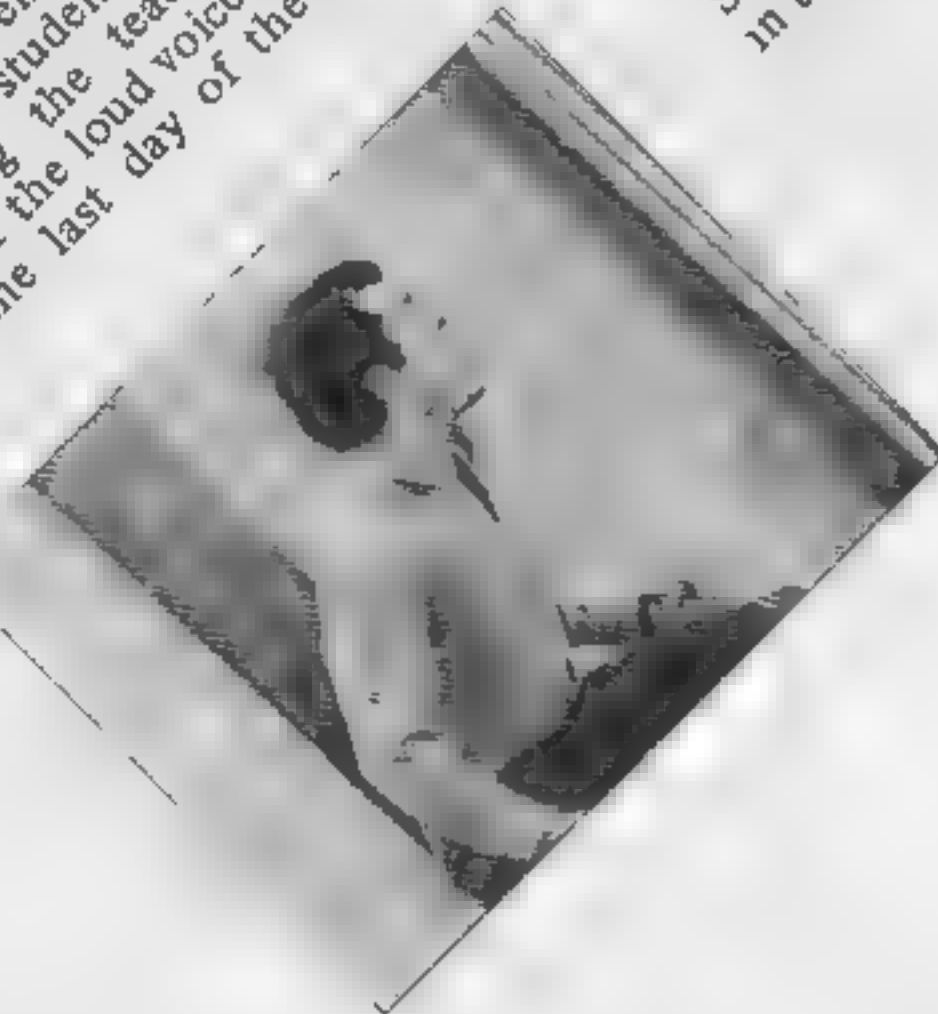

What has been known as the Bingo Food Fair changed its name to Bingo Food Festival. As its name states, this year's Bingo Food Festival brought about the festive atmosphere which has not been seen in the past. Michael, we really did look for you.

Monday, 7 - Wednesday, 9
Spirit Week

This year the student council started a new event to enhance the spirit of the students. We really enjoyed seeing the teachers give their cries at the loud voice contest held on the last day of the spirit week.

Thursday, 24
Math Contest

1986 Forward Staff

The production of the Forward basically consists of three major stages: planning, execution, and printing. The planning stage includes developing a basic theme, making a dummy book, and scheduling. The execution stage consists of taking photographs, writing, editing, and layout work. The final stage, printing, includes proofreading and the actual printing which is handled by a professional printer. The most tedious and time-consuming job, of course, is the second stage, which requires dedication and hours and hours of in-class and after-school (late night) work. The workload during this stage, however, can be greatly reduced and proceed more smoothly, if we spend enough time in the planning stage. The Forward staff of 1986, unfortunately, realized the importance of this fact only at the end.

Moderator(ケンタッキーのおじさん)
Mr. P. Eymard

You Froggy,
editor in chief,

You are irresponsible, sly, a procrastinator, a bit insane, self-centered, prejudiced short tempered, hysterical, unrealistic, lazy, etc. Hisanori wouldn't have been as impolite to Fuj only if you could act stronger towards him. If you were a little more mature and could react passively to Tako's comments, we would have had less trouble and more work done. Don't complain about your prom partner when no one is interested. It drove everyone half way paranoid. Probably it was your biggest mistake to have chosen us as your staff. Anyway, you were the editor and also our good friend.

You Tako, co-editor,

Thank you for all the troubles you caused during the course of this school year. The whole forward work would have gone more smoothly if you could have kept your personal problems to yourself and acted more maturely. Though it has nothing to do with the Forward, your drastic change in your hairstyle kept us laughing for months. Did you do any work as a co-editor? Man, grow up and control your emotions. Learn to keep your mouth shut when appropriate.

You Baba,
Layout-editor,

You are the greatest procrastinator in SJIS. After 12 years of education at SJIS, you can't even spell. As a layout editor you did a magnificent job disregarding your habitual saying, "CHOTTO OCHASHITEKURU" and your innate tendency to never return from this pilgrimage. Be responsible and do your job by yourself. Don't count on the others to do your job.

You Piggy,
literary editor,

We won't forget your famous remark, "Wake me up in 40 minutes." After all what did you do as a literary editor? There is one thing that we realized. You can write English in such a way that it takes hours and quite a bit of intelligence to decode your enigmatic proeses. Your English was completely incomprehensible. Be a grown-up man! We really envy your Lollita love affair.

You Chen,
chief photographer,

Get lost! Why didn't you do your work instead of boasting around telling the "esteemed" editor to do those craps, re-printing lost photos. You keep on telling others, "You think your tough hah!" but what about you, you shortest of all; you "INU"; you "NEZUMI-OTOKO", stop forcing girls, namely Sonya and Akiko, our valuable helpers, into the dark room. Half the time you spent in the Forward room, you were preoccupied with your personal problems, prating with girls. Don't make Megumi cry by ignoring her and going out with some other ISSH girl.

You Matsui,
layouter,

We understand that you were engaged in numerous activities besides FORWARD. You were the soccer team captain; you were the class president; you were a baseball team member; but big deal. Don't come back in the midnight when others are working, just to copy your homework. Your existence indeed was one of the hurdles the FORWARD staff had to overcome. Sorry for making you upset about numerous things but please realize that you also did a lot of harm to us. If you could only have kept your big mouth shut ...

You Kita,
business manager,

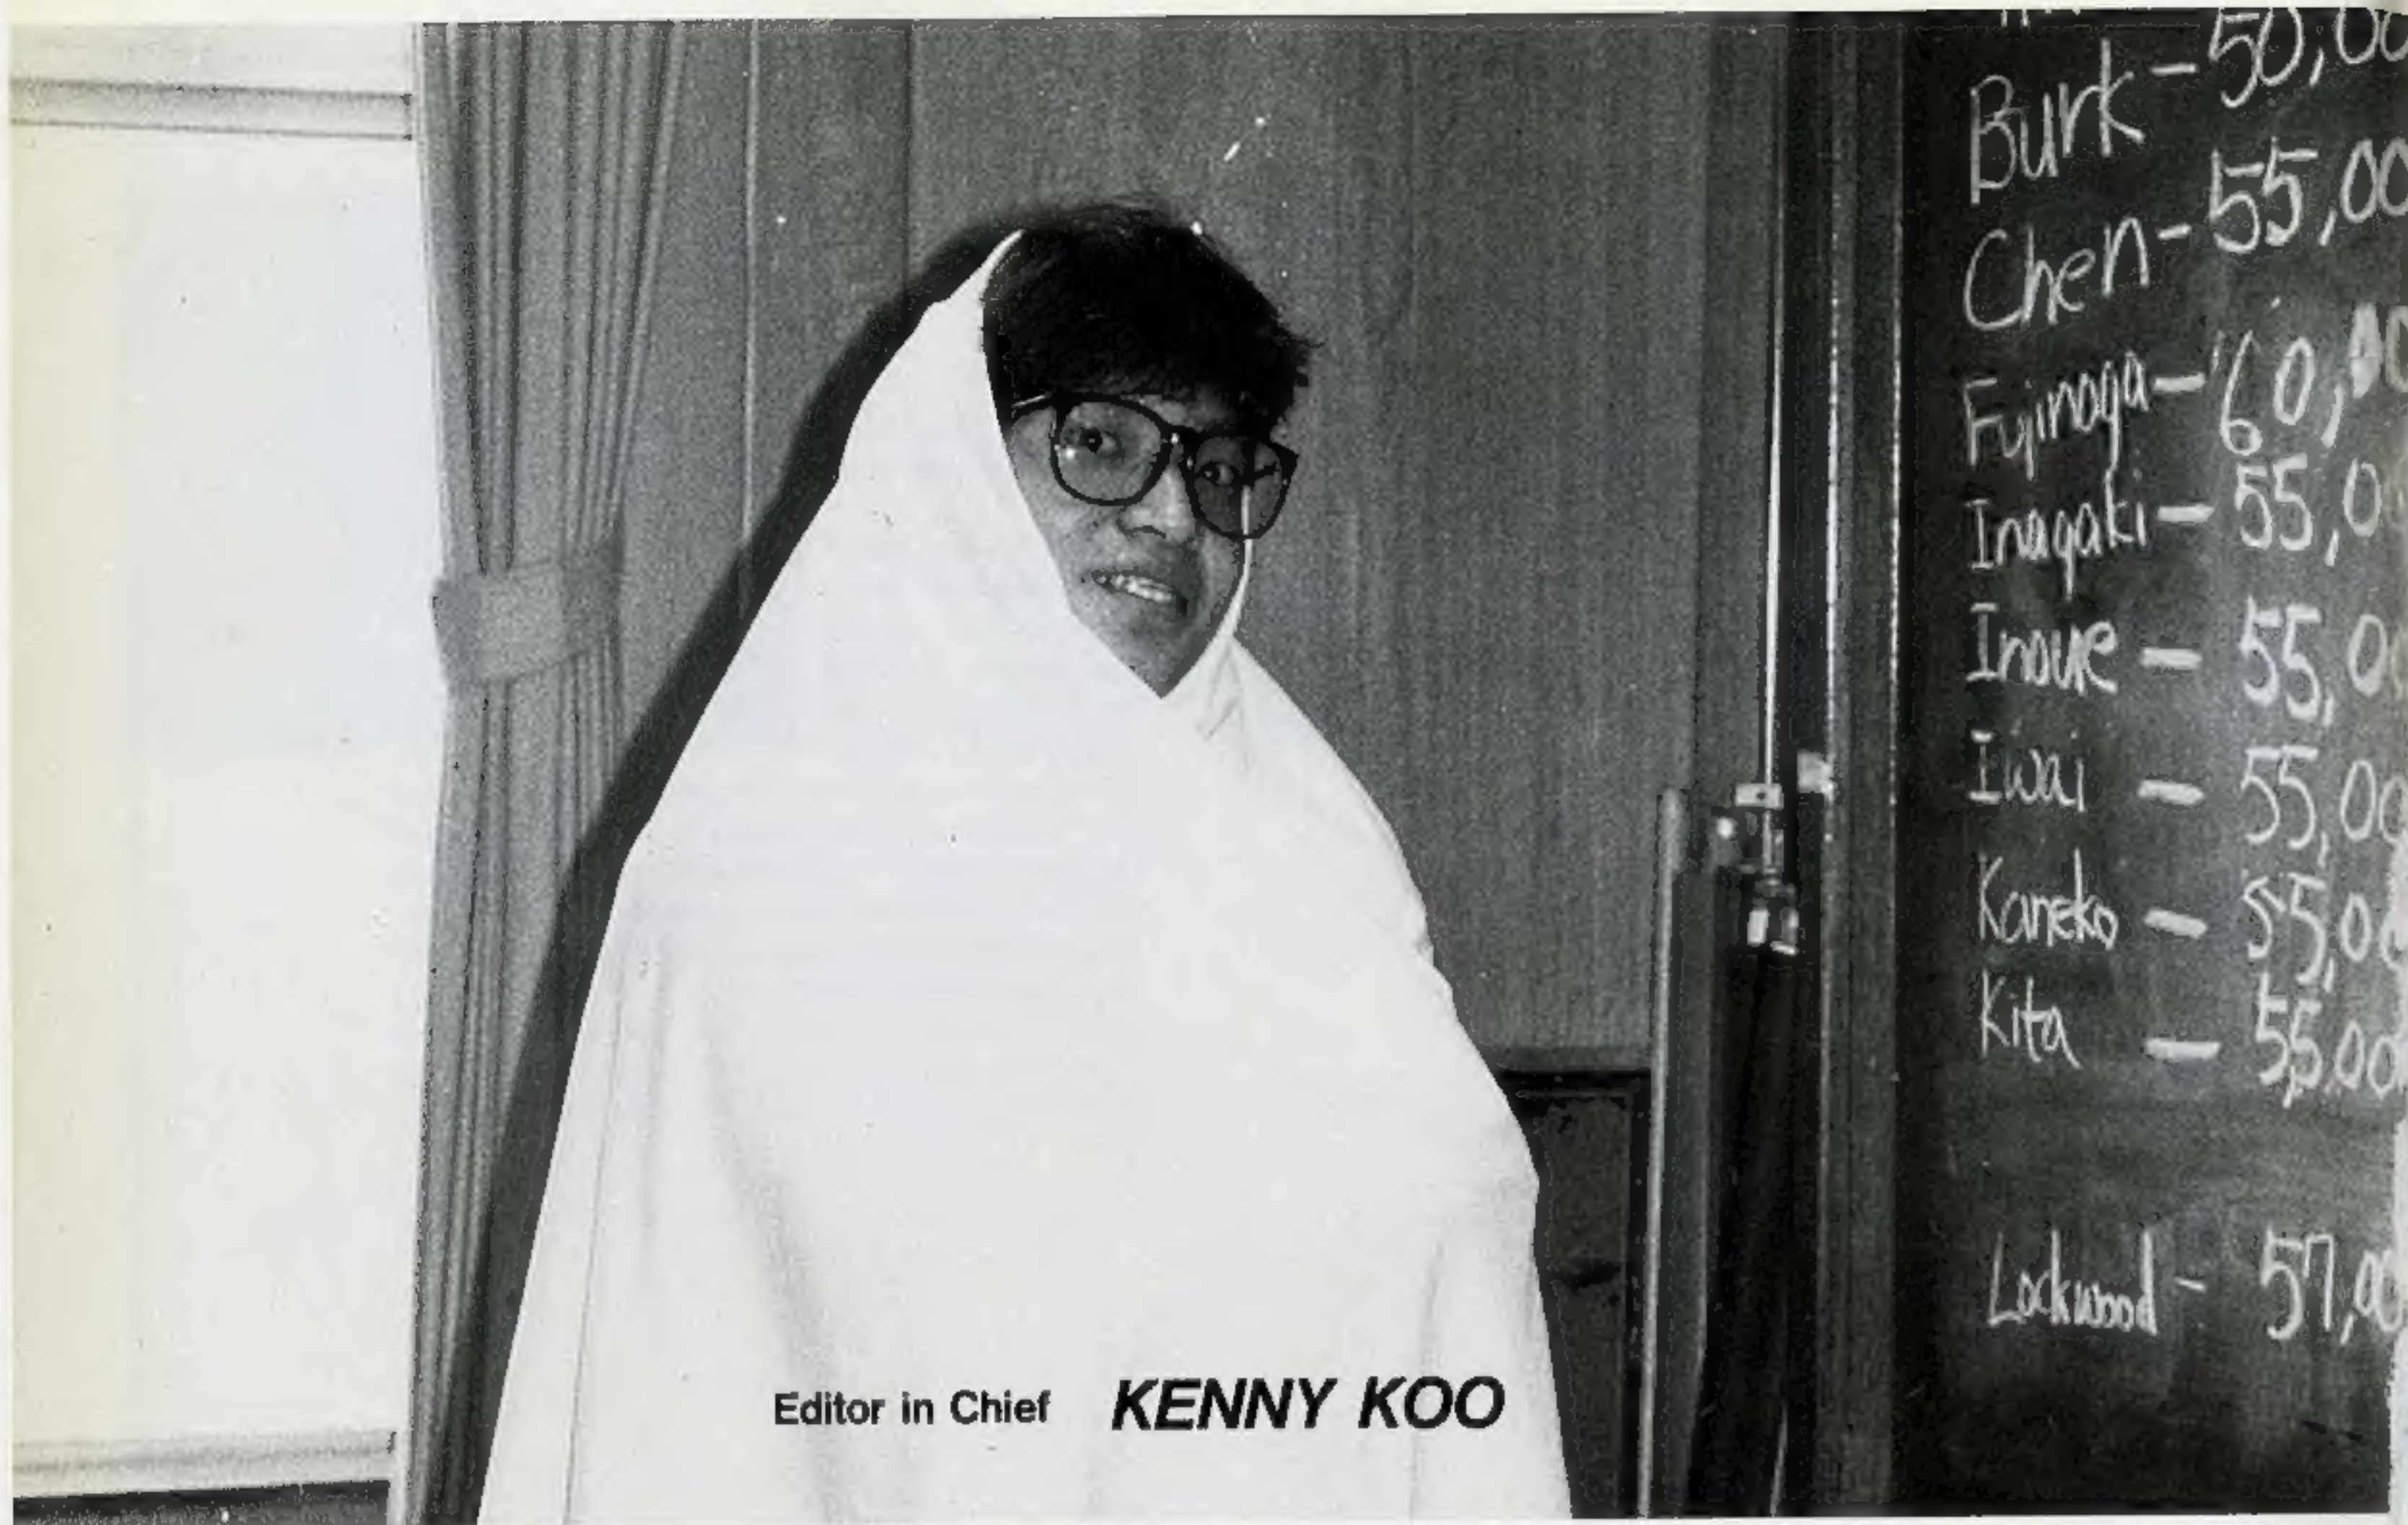

We understand that you have an enormous nose. That has been proven through the course of our years at SJIS, but that does not give you any special privilege to go and clear out all the matters at PORTSIDE. Your comment, "ORE GA HANASHI O TSU KE TE KITE YARU," will forever remain as a legend as long as FORWARD prevails. By the way, how many ads did you actually sell?

You Debu, honorary
super all-rounder,

Thank you for coming out late at night to help out printing pictures, finishing the layout and keeping company for the arduous jobs that we had to accomplish. If you could only have been a bit more slimmer, it would have been much easier to transport you from school to your home. Go on a diet!
